Pushing the boundary for technical innovation, the Pure Half-Zip Hoodie is engineered from the most flexible high-performance fabric we've ever developed. Four-way stretch provides ultimate mobility and comfort on the course, while construction allows the fabric to naturally adapt to conditions—blocking wind when idle and opening up for optimal airflow when in motion. Finished with a half-zip closure.
